2016 GRAND RAPIDS INCOME TAX RETURN FORM CHANGES

There are no significant changes to the 2016 income tax return forms.

WHO MUST FILE A RETURN

If you had Grand Rapids taxable income greater than the total of your personal and dependency exemptions, you must file a tax return — even if you did not file a federal tax return. See Exemptions Schedule for more information on your allowable exemptions. You are required to file a tax return and pay tax even if your employer did not withhold Grand Rapids tax from your paycheck. You will be required to make estimated income tax payments if you work for an employer not withholding Grand Rapids tax from your 2017 wages.

ESTIMATED TAX PAYMENTS

When your total income tax is greater than the amount of tax withheld plus other credits by $100 or more, you may be required to make quarterly estimated tax payments. File Form GR-1040ES (available on the Grand Rapids website) by April 30 of the tax year and pay at least one-fourth (¼) of the estimated tax. The remaining estimated tax is due in three equal payments on June 30 and September 30 of the tax year and January 31 of the following year. Adjust the remaining quarterly payments if your income increases or decreases during the year.

Failure to make required estimated tax payments or underpayment of estimated tax will result in assessment of penalty and interest. If you have made estimated tax payments and do not owe more tax for the year, you still must file a tax return.

DUE DATE AND EXTENSIONS

Returns are due on or before April 30, 2017. If a due date falls on a weekend or holiday, the due date becomes the next business day. The due date of the annual income tax return may be extended for a period not to exceed six months. To apply for an extension, file Form GR-4868, Application for Automatic Extension of Time to File an Individual Income Tax Return. Applying for a federal extension does not satisfy the requirement for filing a Grand Rapids extension application. For an extension to be made and the tentative tax due must be paid (MCL 141.664). Filing an extension with payment is not a substitute for making estimated tax payments. An extension does not extend the time for paying the tax due.

When an extension form is filed and the balance due is paid, it may be assumed that the extension is automatically granted unless otherwise notified. Interest and penalty is charged on taxes paid late even if an extension of time to file is granted. Penalty may be waived by the Income Tax Administrator if the tax paid by the original due date is not understated by more than 5% of tax or the taxpayer is able to show that the failure to pay on time was due to reasonable cause.

AMENDED RETURNS

File amended returns using the Form GR-1040X. If a change on your federal return affects Grand Rapids taxable income, you must file an amended return within 90 days of the change. All schedules supporting the changes should accompany the filing. Every change must be explained. Mail amended returns to: Grand Rapids Income Tax, PO Box 347, Grand Rapids, MI 49501-0347.

CHARGES FOR LATE PAYMENTS

All taxes remaining unpaid after the due date are subject interest at the rate of 1% above the adjusted prime rate on an annual basis and to penalty at a rate of 1% per month, not to exceed a total penalty of 25% of the tax. The minimum charge for interest and penalty is $2.00.

DISCLAIMER

These instructions are interpretations of the Grand Rapids Income Tax Ordinance, MCLA 141.601 et seq. The City of Grand Rapids Ordinance will prevail in any disagreement between these instructions and the Ordinance.

DEDUCTIONS SCHEDULE
You may deduct amounts that directly relate to income that is taxable by Grand Rapids, prorating where necessary. Allowable deductions include the following line number items:

Line 1 – Individual Retirement Account (IRA) Contributions

Under the Grand Rapids Income Tax Ordinance meals must be incurred while away from home overnight on business.

BUSINESS EXPENSES ARE LIMITED TO THE FOLLOWING:
A. Expenses of transportation, but not to and from work.

PART-YEAR RESIDENTS
If you had income taxable as a resident and as a nonresident during the year, you must file as a part-year resident. Part-year residents compute the amount of their tax on Schedule TC. Complete the form using the instructions on the Schedule TC and the resident and nonresident instructions.

Income is allocated according to the residency status for each item of income. Use the Wages and Excludible Wages Schedule (Attachment 2) to report wages from all employers. If taxpayer or spouse worked both in and outside of Grand Rapids for any employer when a nonresident during the year, use the Part-year Resident Wage allocation instructions for residents and nonresidents as a guide to allocate wages. Use the Excluded Wages and Tax Withheld Schedule on page 2 to report excluded wages and Grand Rapids tax withheld.

Schedule TC is available on the city website: www.gocity.us/incometax, under Tax Forms. Call (616) 456-3415 to have a form mailed to you.

Sch. TC, Line 20a -Losses transferred between columns C and D
If Schedule TC, line 20a, column C reports a resident loss and line 20a of column D reports income, or vice versa, an adjustment may be made to offset the loss against income in the other residence status.

If line 20c, column C or column D is a negative amount, it is the net operating loss deduction allowed to be carried forward in its status as a resident or nonresident. A resident loss is allowed to be claimed as a net operating loss deduction against future income in either resident or nonresident.
status. A nonresident net operating loss is allowed to be claimed as a net operating loss deduction against future nonresident income, or against future resident income at one-half of the amount of the nonresident net operating loss.

RESIDENTS

Line 1 – Wages, Salaries, Tips, Etc.
The front page of the federal tax return must be attached to all resident tax returns. All W-2 forms showing wages and Grand Rapids tax withheld must be attached to page 1 of the return.

Complete the Wages and Excludible Wages Schedule to report all wages and excludible wages. The total wages from line 22 of this schedule should equal the wages reported on Form GR-1040, page 1, line 1, column A, and the wages reported on your federal tax return, Form 1040, Form 1040A or Form 1040EZ.

A resident is taxed on ALL earnings, including salary, bonus, separation, and incentive payments, tips, commissions and other compensation for services rendered—no matter where earned. Example: Taxpayer lives in the City of Grand Rapids but works in Lansing and receives a paycheck from the home office in New York City: 100% of this compensation is taxable.

If your employer did not withhold Grand Rapids tax from your paycheck, you are still required to file and pay tax on those wages at the resident tax rate. You will also be required to make estimated tax payments if your employer does not withhold Grand Rapids tax for you in 2017.

All nontaxable wages must be documented on the Wages and Excludible Wages Schedule and listed by employer on the Excluded Wages and Tax Withheld Schedule on page 2. A resident’s wages are generally not excludible. An example of excludible (nontaxable) resident wages is military pay.

Statutory employee wages (those wages reported on Form W-2, box 1, with box 13, statutory employee, checked) are not included in wages reported on Form GR-1040, line 1, column A, but are included as gross receipts on Federal Schedule C. Report the Form W-2 of a statutory employee on the Wages and Excludible Wages Schedule (Attachment 2) by completing lines 1 through 8 and line 19 for the employer. On line 8 report the statutory employee wages as zero (0) and on line 19 enter “statutory employee” as the reason the wages are not included as taxable.

Attach a complete copy of federal Schedule C. Federal rules concerning passive losses are applicable to losses deducted on a Grand Rapids return.

Line 7 – Capital Gain or (Loss)
The Uniform City Income Tax Ordinance follows the Internal Revenue Code regarding capital gains. All capital gains realized while a resident are taxable regardless of where the property is located, with the following exceptions:

1. Capital gains on sales of obligations of the United States and subordinate units of government.
2. The portion of the capital gain or loss on property purchased prior to the inception of the Grand Rapids income tax ordinance that is attributed to the time before inception ordinance.
3. Capital loss carryovers that originated prior to the taxpayer becoming a resident of Grand Rapids are not deductible.

Capital losses are allowed to the same extent they are allowed under the Internal Revenue Code and limited to $3,000 per year. Unused net capital losses may be carried over to future tax years. The capital loss carryover for Grand Rapids may be different than the carryover for federal income tax purposes.

Deferred capital gains income from installment sales and like-kind exchanges are taxable in the same year reported on the taxpayer’s federal income tax return.

Flow through income or loss from an S corporation reported on federal Schedule D is taxable. Attach copies of federal Sch. K-1 (Form 1120S).

Residents reporting capital gains or losses must attach a copy of federal Schedule D.

Excluded capital gains must be explained by completing and attaching the Exclusions and Adjustments to Capital Gains or (Losses) schedule.

Line 8 – Other Gains or (Losses)
Other gains or losses are taxable to the extent that they are taxable on the federal 1040. Other gains and losses realized while a resident are taxable regardless of where the property is located, except the portion of the gain or loss on property purchased prior to the inception of the Grand Rapids Income Tax Ordinance.

Deferred other gains from installment sales and like-kind exchanges are taxable in the year recognized on the federal income tax return. Deferred gains must be supported by attaching a copy of federal Form 6252 and/or Form 8824.

Residents reporting other gains and losses must attach a copy of federal Form 4797.

Flow through income or loss from an S corporation reported on federal Form 4797 of a resident is taxable. Attach copies of federal Schedule K-1 (Form 1120S).

Exclude in column B, IRA distributions qualifying as retirement benefits: IRA distributions received after age 59½ or described by Section 72(t)(2)(A)(iv) of the IRC and all other excluded IRA distributions. The Exclusions and Adjustments to IRA Distributions schedule is used to document excluded IRA distributions.

The conversion of a traditional IRA to a ROTH IRA is taxable to a resident (Form 1099-R, box 7, Distribution Code, G) unless the individual making the conversion is 59 ½ years old or older at the time of the conversion.

Line 10 – Taxable Pension Distributions
Enter on line 10, column A, pension and annuities reported on federal Form 1040 or Form 1040A. Excluded pension and retirement benefits are reported on line 10, column B and explained on the Exclusions and Adjustments to Pension Distributions schedule.

The total wages from line 22 of this schedule is the amount reported on Form GR-1040, page 1, line 1, column A. The total wages should be the same as the wages reported on your federal tax return (Form 1040, Form 1040A or Form 1040EZ).

All W-2 forms showing income earned in Grand Rapids and/or tax withheld for Grand Rapids must be attached to the return.
